SLT/BLS300: THE BASICS OF MENTORING

Delve deeper into the influential role every believer plays as mentor to those God has placed in their "garden." We will examine the discipleship process, the realities of relationally based learning, and creating an inheritance for others. The key concepts of giving and receiving correction in a godly way are addressed with instruction on navigating the essential elements of relationships, potential obstacles, and practical listening and speaking skills. Finally, it challenges people to face their fears and lead others in faith for deep, personal change.

Five-part series on the following topics:

- The Four Stages of Discipleship
- The Art of Bringing Correction (Parts 1, 2 & 3)
- Helping People Face Their Fears

BLS302: BUILDING YOUR BUSINESS STRATEGICALLY

Designed to further empower you as a BLS graduate, this module provides additional distinctions between the world economic system, Kingdom economics, and best business practices. It will further equip you for the process of building or remodeling businesses and business practices to reflect Kingdom-based patterns. It contrasts Biblical economics with socialism and capitalism and discusses keys to success with the "4C model." With an emphasis on strategic planning, it covers worldview, axioms, interpersonal relationships, and the principles of spiritual warfare. Lastly, it provides practical analysis tools for decision making. Six-part series on the following topics:

- The 4-C Model
- Principles of Engagement
- Principles of Value and Worldview
- Principles of Scope and Sequence
- Principles of Human Interaction
- Principles of Spiritual Warfare

BLS303: BUILDING TEAMS GOD'S WAY

All organizations—families, churches, businesses, nations—are "teams." The question is, can they "run plays" successfully and achieve excellence in their goals? This graduate module explores what teamwork looks like from a biblical perspective and what it produces. We will examine the definition of "success" in the game, how to recognize, build, and play on successful teams, and how to implement Kingdom principles that honor God and bring harmony to our organizations.

Eight-part series broken in to four sections on the following topics:

- Key Structures and the Physics of Building
- The C-4 Model
- Aligning Structures, Values, and Relationships
- Organizational Stability
